ORDER OF REINSTATEMENT OF MEDICATION TECHNICIAN CERTIFICATE

I. PROCEDURAL BACKGROUND

On or about February 9, 2021, the Maryland Board of Nursing (the “Board”) suspended the certificate of Kenechukwu Ashley Uyammadu (the “Respondent”) to practice as a medication technician (“MT”) in the State of Maryland, certificate number MT0123614. The suspension was based on the Respondent’s failure to respond appropriately to a patient under her care who was in distress.

II. CONSIDERATION OF REINSTATEMENT APPLICATION

On or about September 29, 2022, the Respondent submitted a request to the Board to reinstate her certificate to practice as an MT in the State of Maryland. In support of her reinstatement request, the Respondent submitted a letter requesting reinstatement, evidence of completion of a criminal history records check, letter of reference, evidence of completion of a medication technician class, and satisfactory evidence of receiving education in caring for the diabetic patient.¹ Upon consideration of the materials submitted in support of the Respondent’s

¹ The Board’s February 9, 2021 Suspension Order required the Respondent to submit, along with her application for reinstatement, satisfactory evidence that the Respondent successfully completed a course entitled “Care of the Diabetic Patient” offered by NCSBN. However, this course is no longer offered by NCSBN. Accordingly, the Board accepted evidence that the Respondent received other education in caring for the diabetic patient in satisfaction of this requirement.
